

Stayin' Through the Storm

Danika Starrharrt

Intro: F#m | E | C#m | F#m | F#m | E | D | D |

F#m E C#m F#m
He found them on the broken porch: a couple of souls with a flickering torch.

F#m E D
He bent around the corner, listening in.

F#m E C#m F#m
Like leftover laundry hung on the line trembles with wind from the blackening sky,
F#m E D
Their voices shook with love grown cold again.

F#m E C#m F#m
A man and a woman raising a boy, caught in depression, lost from the joy,

F#m E D
And as the boy looked on, his plans evolved.

F#m E C#m F#m
At fifteen years he had some cash, and muscle enough to tote his own pack,
F#m E D
But on that night a light changed his resolve.

CHORUS:

A
Since hope has been called an anchor,
D
Don't let me run in anger from the years,
F#m7 D
Though to lies I won't conform.

A
And since courage presents no danger,
D
I'm not gonna be a stranger from the tears;
E7 A D
I'm staying through the storm.

Instrumental Verse (16 m.)

(Chorus)

Tag:

F#m7 A/E D A/C#
Don't let me be one extra thorn; though at times I just feel worn,
E A
I'll be stayin', stayin' through the storm.

(Instrumental Chorus)

BRIDGE:

A2 F#m D E
Believe that even you can heal, yes, everyone who dares to grasp it.

F#m A D E
Receive a promise you can feel according to the way you ask it.
(loop bridge chords for instrumental end)
